

Informação: Artigo 13.º e 15.º do Regulamento (UE) 2022/612 do Parlamento Europeu de 6 de abril 2022

No âmbito do artigo acima referido relativo ao serviço de roaming em redes de comunicações públicas dentro da União Europeia, a Vodafone disponibiliza informação sobre os serviços de valor acrescentado disponibilizados noutra Estado Membro, bem como informação relativa a meios de acesso aos serviços de emergência e alertas públicos, disponibilizados nesses países.

Deste modo, nesta página é possível consultar a informação acima referida, para cada país relativa a:

- Gamas de numeração dos serviços de valor acrescentado
- Meios de acesso aos serviços de emergência
- Meios de acesso aos serviços de alertas públicos

A informação apresentada está de acordo com a base de dados disponibilizada pelo Organismo de Reguladores Europeus das Comunicações Eletrónicas (ORECE), de acordo com o Artigo 16.º do Regulamento acima referido.

As chamadas efetuadas em roaming para números gratuitos de outros Estados Membros são taxadas de acordo com o seu tarifário para comunicações de voz nacionais. As chamadas efetuadas em roaming para números gratuitos nacionais são gratuitas.

Para mais informações, consulte a página www.vodafone.pt.

IT	Public	Cell Broadcast	https://www.it-alert.gov.it		IT-alert. The system uses the CAP (Common Alerting Protocol), in the Italian CAP-IT profile. The system can release the messages produced in an open format, always using other standard formats (json, rss), in order to be able in future to re-launch the IT-alert messages also on digital motorway billboards, control rooms, television but also on social networks. The system is currently in an experimental and testing phase and pilot region tests have been organized and are being organised.
